To Whom It May Concern:

We are currently customers of Raymond Burkner, Self Defense of Pest Control. Mr. Burkner personally visits our facility on a quarterly basis and completes a thorough inspection to ensure that the facility is well maintained of avoiding pest control problems. He frequently contacts the facility to follow-up with the status of pest control concerns. We are very pleased with the immediate and prompt response with Self Defense of Pest Control. The company does not only address direct concerns with pest control, but specializes and advises in preventive methods. I highly recommend Self Defense of Pest Control for providing services with pest control.

If you have additional questions about this company and its services, please feel free to contact me at the telephone number listed above. Thank you.
